

User Stories:

As an employee, I want to be able to choose a customizable and suitable avatar/background, so that the employer receives a representation of me.

As an employee, I want to be able to easily upload my CV, so that the employer can view my skills and work experience.

As an employee, I want to be able to provide my twitter account, so that the employer can use this to assess my personality traits.

As an employee, I want to be able to see whether any communication has been made with my avatar, so that I can see what type of employers are interested in my resume.

As an employer, I want to be able to view the submitted resume, so that I can assess the applicant.

As an employer, I want to be able to communicate with the applicant's avatar via text or voice, so that I can get a deeper insight into their resume as well as personality.

As an employer, I want to be able to use Watson Personality insights to get a breakdown of their traits, so that I can decide whether they are suitable for the company/job.